▶ Early help

All staff of Success Academies are alerted and aware of the need for early help, including for children who are more vulnerable. All staff will be made aware of any vulnerable children that they work with, in order to be aware of signs for early help.

▶ Sharing information

Staff are to be made aware that they should never promise confidentiality to a pupil as it might be necessary to share information with others to keep them safe.

Staff note that:

- the Data Protection Act (DPA) 2018 and UK GDPR does not prevent the sharing of information if this is necessary to keep children safe
- concerns about sharing information should not compromise the process of protecting pupils from harm
- if anyone has concerns or questions about sharing information, they should contact the Success Academies designated safeguarding lead (DSL).

General information about DPA and GDPR can be found here:

The Data Protection Act - GOV.UK

Guide to the General Data Protection Regulation - GOV.UK

The Department for Education has provided additional guidance on information sharing for safeguarding practitioners. This can be found here:

Information sharing advice for safeguarding practitioners

Types and Signs of Abuse

Success Academies staff will be vigilant for the below signs of abuse.

▶ General signs of abuse

Some of the signs of abuse are the same, regardless of the type of abuse that the child is experiencing. Examples include (but are not limited to):

- changes in behaviour, such as angry outbursts, aggressive behaviour or becoming withdrawn or anxious
- changes in eating habits – if verbally communicated
- sleep problems or experiencing nightmares – if verbally communicated
- continence problems, such as bed-wetting or soiling themselves – if verbally communicated
- appearing afraid of particular individuals or making excuses to avoid people
- self-harming

- suicidal thoughts
- knowing about topics and issues that are not appropriate for their age
- not receiving adequate or timely medical care or treatment for injuries
- frequent absences from our online learning platform
- lacking social skills and/or having few friends
- running away from home or going missing

▶ Neglect

Neglect is the failure to meet a child's basic needs. Neglect is the most common form of child abuse and often takes place at the same time as other types of abuse.

Neglect can be difficult to recognise but it is important to be aware of and act on any indicators of neglect. Examples include a failure to:

- provide adequate food, clothing and shelter
- receive appropriate medical and dental care
- ensure that a child is accessing regular education
- provide supervision that is appropriate to their age and stage of development
- meet their emotional needs – for example, to feel safe and loved

The potential signs of neglect include (but are not limited to):

- being unclean or 'smelly' – if verbally communicated
- being hungry frequently – if verbally communicated
- losing weight or being underweight – if verbally communicated
- wearing inappropriate clothing
- reports of a child being left alone or unsupervised for a period of time that is unsuitable for their age or stage of development
- untreated injuries, medical conditions or dental issues
- poor language, communication or social skills
- not having many friends
- regularly complaining of tiredness

► Physical abuse

Physical abuse is abuse that causes physical harm to a child. It may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, burning/scalding, drowning, suffocating, poisoning or otherwise. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Bruising and cuts are common on children, but it is important to view all injuries in a wider context and to be aware that some injuries may have been inflicted, rather than being accidental.

The indicators of physical abuse include (but are not limited to):

- unexplained marks or bruising, or an explanation which is inconsistent with the injury
- multiple bruises
- burns, e.g. from a cigarette or mirroring the shape of an object
- scalds
- bite marks
- broken skin
- physically flinching from physical contact or touch

► Emotional abuse

Emotional abuse is the emotional maltreatment of a child which causes adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve telling a child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or making them feel that they are not valued.

Emotional abuse may also include:

- not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them, or belittling what they say or how they communicate
- age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children that are inappropriate for their age of stage of development
- serious bullying (including cyber-bullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children

Emotional abuse can be hard to identify due to there being no physical signs. It should be recognised that a child who appears well looked after could still be suffering from emotional abuse.

Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, although it may occur alone.

The indicators of emotional abuse may include (but are not limited to):

- rocking
- sulking
- hair twisting

- being unable to play
- experiencing sudden speech disorders
- being fearful of making a mistake
- being withdrawn, anxious or depressed
- self-harm
- being fearful of a parent being spoken to about their changes in behaviour.

► Sexual abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child to take part in sexual activities. It can take the form of physical contact and/or non-contact activities.

Physical contact includes assault by penetration (for example, rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts, such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing, and touching outside of clothing.

Non-contact activities includes children looking at, or being involved in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for abuse.

Sexual abuse can take place online, and technology can be used to facilitate offline abuse. Sexual abuse can be perpetrated by men, women or other children. The sexual abuse of children by other children is a specific safeguarding issue (also known as child-on-child abuse) and there is a separate section about this later in this policy.

Upskirting The Voyeurism (Offences) Act 2019, which is commonly known as the Upskirting Act, came into force in 2019. Upskirting is where someone takes a picture under a person's clothing (not necessarily a skirt) without their permission and/or knowledge, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm.

Pupils of any gender can be victims of sexual abuse. Any child reporting sexual abuse needs to be taken seriously and listened to.

Signs of sexual abuse include (but are not limited to):

- pain or itching in the genital area
- stomach pains
- discomfort sitting down or walking
- sexually transmitted diseases
- bruising or bleeding in the genital area
- vaginal discharge or infection
- pregnancy
- having inappropriate sexual knowledge for their age
- sexual drawings or language
- bed-wetting
- having secrets which they say they cannot tell anyone
- having unexplained money suddenly
- not being allowed to have friends.

Specific Safeguarding Issues

► Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)

Child Sexual Exploitation is a form of sexual abuse. It occurs when an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity. An abuser will gain the trust of a child or control them through blackmail or violence.

CSE can happen in person or online. A child exploited online may be forced to:

- distribute sexual images of themselves
- film or livestream sexual activities
- engage in sexual conversations

The indicators of potential CSE can include (but are not limited to):

- going missing
- not attending online classes
- having sexual knowledge that is inappropriate for their age
- using drugs or alcohol
- having unexpected gifts or money that they will not explain the source of
- concerns regarding sexual health
- becoming isolated from family and friendship groups
- struggling with trust
- declining emotional wellbeing.

► Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE)

Child Criminal Exploitation is a form of abuse where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into criminal activity.

This can include children being involved in transporting drugs or money (county lines), working in cannabis factories, shoplifting or pickpocketing, as well as being forced or manipulated into committing crime, such as vehicle crime or threatening/committing serious violence to others. Children can be trapped in this kind of exploitation by being threatened with violence or coerced into debt. Children may also be coerced into carrying weapons, or may begin carrying a knife for protection from others.

The indicators of potential CCE can include (but are not limited to):

- going missing or travelling for unexplained reasons
- not attending online classes
- using drugs or alcohol

- being involved with gang activity or exhibiting signs of this, such as wearing clothing/accessories or using slang associated with gangs
- having unexpected gifts or money that they will not explain the source of
- committing 'petty' crime, such as shoplifting
- carrying a weapon
- becoming isolated from family and friendship groups
- unexplained injuries and refusal to seek medical help
- declining emotional wellbeing

▶ Serious violence

Children and young people can be involved with, and be at risk from, serious violent crime. This can be linked to Child Criminal Exploitation but can also occur separately.

The indicators of potential serious violent crime can include (but are not limited to):

- regular or increased absence from online classes
- decline in academic performance or behaviour
- change in friendships or relationships, often involving older individuals or groups
- signs of self-harm
- being involved with gang activity
- signs of assault or unexplained injuries
- significant change in wellbeing
- any potential indicators of CCE

Staff suspecting any of the above are to take detailed notes with dates and times, not ask any leading questions and refer the information to the DSL for Success Academies who will work with the child, family and third parties to ensure that the child is safeguarded effectively. This may include the involvement of a LADO, police, social services or via the child's local MASH service.

▶ Domestic abuse

Domestic abuse can be, but is not limited to, psychological, physical, sexual, financial or emotional abuse. It can be an isolated incident, or a series of incidents and children can be victims. They may see, hear or experience the effects of abuse at home and/or suffer domestic abuse in their own intimate relationships (teenage relationship abuse).

The indicators of potential domestic abuse can include (but are not limited to):

- becoming anxious, withdrawn or depressed
- sleep difficulties
- bed-wetting
- complaining of physical symptoms, such as tummy aches
- behavioural issues, such as aggression or behaving in a much younger manner than their actual age
- low sense of self-worth or self-esteem
- self-harm
- alcohol or drug abuse

▶ Female Genital Mutilation (FGM)

Female Genital Mutilation involves procedures that intentionally alter/injure the female genital organs for non-medical reasons.

The Success Academies understands that staff have a mandatory duty to report to the police if they believe an act of FGM has been carried out on a girl under the age of 18. Failure to do this could result in disciplinary action for staff.

The signs of FGM include (but are not limited to):

- being absent from online lessons
- appearing to be in pain or have restricted movements
- regularly going to the toilet for prolonged amounts of time
- Planned holidays to countries which are known to practise FGM

Section 5B(11) of the Female Genital Mutilation Act 2003, inserted under section 74 of the Serious Crime Act 2015, specifies that if staff suspect that FGM has been carried out on a pupil under 18 years of age, they have a statutory duty to report this to the police.

Statutory guidance on Female Genital Mutilation can be found here:

Multi-agency statutory guidance on female genital mutilation - GOV.UK

▶ Forced marriage

It is a criminal offence to force a person to marry in England and Wales. Young men and women can be at risk in affected ethnic groups. Forced marriage is distinct from arranged marriages.

Evidence shows that the issue of forced marriage affects certain sectors of communities. It typically affects girls in the age range of 14-16 years old. However, it can affect boys. One sign of forced marriage is a lengthy absence which is often unexplained.

Any member of staff with concerns regarding forced marriage should report this immediately to the DSL, who should raise the concern with the police.

▶ Child-on-child abuse

The Success Academies understands that abuse can take place from one child to another child. Child-on-child abuse can take a number of forms including (but not limited to):

- bullying, including discriminatory bullying and cyberbullying
- physical abuse
- sexual harassment, including online sexual harassment
- causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent
- upskirting
- consensual and non-consensual sharing of nude and semi-nude images and/or videos (also known as sexting or youth-produced sexual imagery)

Sexual violence and sexual harassment can occur between two or more children of any age and sex. It can occur also through a group of children sexually assaulting or sexually harassing a single child or group of children. Sexual violence and sexual harassment exist on a continuum and may overlap; they can be both physical and verbal and can occur online and/or face to face.

Staff take a zero-tolerance approach to sexual violence and sexual harassment. It is never acceptable and should not be tolerated. It should never be passed off as "banter", "just having a laugh", "a part of growing up" or "boys being boys". Failure to do so can lead to a culture of unacceptable behaviour, an unsafe environment and encourage people to falsely believe that it is acceptable.

Physical interaction is not an issue for learners at Success Academies, but staff will report on any of the above concerns

► Radicalisation and extremism

The Department for Education defines extremism, radicalisation and terrorism as follows:

Extremism is the vocal or active opposition to our fundamental values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and the mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. This also includes calling for the death of members of the armed forces.

Radicalisation refers to the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies associated with terrorist groups.

Terrorism is an action that endangers or causes serious violence to a person/people; causes serious damage to property; or seriously interferes or disrupts an electronic system. The use or threat must be designed to influence the government or to intimidate the public and is made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause.

There is no single way of identifying an individual who is likely to be susceptible to a radical ideology. All staff will be aware of changes in pupils' behaviour which could indicate that they may be at risk.

Statutory guidance on the Prevent duty

Signs of radicalisation include (but are not limited to):

- being unwilling to listen to different points of view
- becoming obsessive about conspiracy theories
- changes in appearance and clothing
- converting to a new religion
- changes in hobbies or pastimes
- becoming secretive
- spending a lot of time online or on the phone
- changing friends or becoming isolated
- showing an interest in extremist organisations
- accessing extremist content online
- expressing unusual views
- making discriminatory comments
- becoming unwilling to engage with people from different groups, religions, etc.

Success Academies staff are aware of the above signs and will report on to the DSL – who in turn will communicate with relevant bodies to access support.

▶ Online safety and the use of mobile and smart technology

Success Academies is an online learning provider and learners can only access provision via computers, mobile or smart technology. Where Success Academies has concerns or suspicions about the misuse of technology, it will be reported to the Director and DSL – This will then be communicated with the learners parents/carers as appropriate.

Links to organisations supporting child online safety are published on our website.

▶ Pupils with SEND or medical needs

Children with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND) are three times more likely to be abused by their peers. Therefore, Success Academies accepts the responsibility to ensure that measures are taken to keep these pupils safe from harm.
